

Welcome to Fair Trade Jordan's new face!

requirements.

We are slowly up-loading members' information. Thank you for your patience!

Jordan came to life as a movement by the efforts of a number of spirited members of the following organisations: the Jordan Hashemite Fund for Human Development , the Royal Society for the Conservation of Nature and IUCN - International Union for Conservation of Nature . the leading national certifier for fair trade standars, which include fair wages and working conditions, gender equality and environmental performance.

We work directly with producers and service providers disadvantages by the nature of the Jordan often miss out on prime marketing opportunities for reasons related to income, geographical outreach and market accessibility. We look to become the marketing arm for fair trade procuders and service providers through our brand, to ensure long-term market access and more justly distributed trading benefits.

Without a sound enabling environment, the benefits of branding and market access are marginal. connect producers and service providers to existing national schemes that technically and financially support their businesses.

Finally, we recognise the need to create a robust and adequate governance structure that ensures environment and adequately maintains relations will all concerned stakeholders. We, thus, continue to work towards a transparent and efficient organisation, to be able to deliver our strategy effectively.
